autopromotec presents

Digital expo and conference by Autopromotec

Thursday December 10

9.30am – 6.00pm CET

Come see us!

On 10th December 2020, starting at 9.30, we will meet on this website to follow talks led by international speakers from businesses, trade associations, universities and legislative and administrative bodies. Keynote addresses will include new mobility and technological innovations, environmental sustainability, legislative frameworks and global economic scenarios.

In Futurmotive exhibitors, buyers, trade associations and media companies will gather together in a virtual convention centre that allows companies and visitors to meet even when they are apart. Futurmotive is a Digital Expo: engage with participating companies present at their booths, talk or chat with their representatives, exchange information, establish new relationships and new business opportunities.

Assemblad will be at Futurmotive with its products that include test lanes, brake testers, emission analyzers, headlight testers and more. There you can catch up with us to see the latest news from Assemblad and talk to our staff that will be more than happy to explain your what's new and what are the chances for a business cooperation of mutual satisfaction.
